1 WHEREAS, The effects of legalizing marijuana have not been fully vetted and analyzed
2 in Rhode Island; and

3 WHEREAS, Data and analysis including, but not limited to, Colorado and Washington, 4 as states that have legalized recreational use of marijuana, can help inform the conversation in 5 Rhode Island and also include a review of the costs, benefits, and societal impact; and

6 WHEREAS, The effects on all populations including children, young and older adults, as 7 well as students, and adults and youth in recovery should be considered; now, therefore be it

8 RESOLVED, That a special legislative commission be and the same is hereby created 9 consisting of twenty-two (22) members: three (3) of whom shall be members of the Senate, not 10 more than two (2) from the same political party, to be appointed by the President of the Senate;
11 three (3) of whom shall be members of the House of Representatives, not more than two (2) from 12 the same political party, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House; one of whom shall be a 13 representative from Smart Approaches to Marijuana or a similar organization, to be appointed by 14 the Speaker of the House; one of whom shall be the President of the Substance Use Mental 15 Health Council of RI, or designee; one of whom shall be a member of an organization that is a 16 proponent for the legalization of marijuana, to be appointed by the President of the Senate; one of 17 whom shall be the Executive Director of the Rhode Island Medical Society, or designee; one of 18 whom shall be a member of a local chamber of commerce, to be appointed by the President of the 19 Senate; one of whom shall be the Director of the Department of Health, or designee; one of whom

1 shall be the President of the Rhode Island Police Chief's Association, or designee; one of whom

14 commission, a legislative study commission, or any commission created by a General Assembly 15 resolution, the appointing authority may appoint a member of the general public to serve in lieu 16 of a legislator, provided that the majority leader or the minority leader of the political party which 17 is entitled to the appointment consents to the appointment of the member of the general public.

18 The purpose of said Commission shall be to conduct a comprehensive review and make 19 recommendations regarding marijuana and the effects of its use on the residents of Colorado and 20 Washington to the extent available, and to study the fiscal impact to those states; and thereafter
21 the potential impact on Rhode Island.

22 Forthwith upon passage of this resolution, the members of the commission shall meet at 23 the call of the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House and organize. The President
24 of the Senate and the Speaker of the House shall each select one member to serve as co-25 chairpersons of the commission.

26 Vacancies in said commission shall be filled in like manner as the original appointment.

27 The membership of said commission shall receive no compensation for their services.

28 All departments and agencies of the state shall furnish such advice and information, 29 documentary and otherwise, to said commission and its agents as is deemed necessary or 30 desirable by the commission to facilitate the purpose of this resolution.

31 The Joint Committee on Legislative Services is hereby authorized and directed to provide 32 suitable quarters for said commission; and be it further

- 1 RESOLVED, That the commission shall report its findings and results to the General
- 2 Assembly on or before March 1, 2018, and said commission shall expire on July 1, 2018.
